

Jesus College, Oxford

2017-18

Welcome from the MCR President

Dear Freshers:

Thank you for choosing to come to Jesus College, Oxford for your graduate studies. This is an incredible opportunity for you to pursue your interests in greater depth. The Oxford environment not only embraces intellectual thought, but also encourages us to think about how we can humanely address important questions and challenges of our time.

The Middle Common Room (MCR) is a community of graduate students from a diversity of backgrounds, specialising in a vast variety of disciplines. We come together in our shared spaces in College to enjoy each other's company and to spark fascinating dialogue. During term time, we are fortunate to have events, such as formal dinners, exchange dinners with other Colleges, and wine & cheeses, where we can experience the high quality food culture and dining ambiance Oxford has to offer.

Do come to Freshers' Week to learn about the ins and outs of Jesus College and Oxford life. The Committee will provide a thorough introduction on what the MCR has to offer. In the meantime, have a look at our website, join our Facebook group (and yours), and feel free to get in touch (di.hu@jesus.ox.ac.uk) if you have any questions, or if you would simply like to chat to a current student.

Our common room is an energetic and exciting place, and we absolutely cannot wait to welcome you to our community.

Yours sincerely,
